- Treasurer's Report:
 - Funds approved for Natural Hazards Summit: 7 students, up to $1300 for travel, link for it will be shared
 - Must be a member
 - Students who have not received previous funding from NHERI GSC will have priority, but all students interested in applying should apply.
 - Students can also apply on DesignSafe website for NCO funding (not NHERI GSC sponsored)
 - Still working details for internationals, but international students should still apply
 - Training for DEI – intro to DEI for natural hazards, training will allow students to lead small group or breakout rooms
 - The training for the July 6th Workshop will allow for students to facilitate breakout rooms. This training will be held following the executive meeting on June 29.
 - Second iteration of the workshop planned for September 23rd
 - Other opportunities for training to facilitate breakout rooms then will be planned and a recording of this training will be available on DropBox
- Working Group Updates:
 - DEI:
 - Harman & Maggie: statement of inclusivity has been updated and will be presented at the next general body meeting
 - In the DEI DropBox

- Send any additional changes to Harman or Maggie. Do not make any unapproved changes
 - Workshops are being planned
 - No summer meetings (July or August). Will pick up in September for the next workshop/meeting
 - New on website: on NHERI GSC page there is a DEI resources page
- Workshop and Mentoring:
 - September 9 Post-disaster reconnaissance with Mike Grilliot from RAPID and panel of grad students and faculty
 - Planning a SimCenter Workshop with breakout rooms
- Social Media:
 - Cross-linked our accounts
 - New guidelines made and available on DropBox
 - Engagement rules and regulations will be addressed in future meetings
- Create a letter for recruiting speakers (similar to that of welcoming new members)
- Have a social for the general body meeting for July
 - Robin will send out an invite to plan the social
- NHERI NCO has talked about having a NHERI GSC member to talk at ECO or the Natural Hazards Summit

Meeting Close: 11:40AM
